The Dragonfly Foundation Presents

THE FORTY FOUR

ABOUT THE AWARD

This award is the first of its kind, unique in both spirit and design. Inspired by the Neitzke's youngest son, Matt, The Forty Four Award was created to recognize unwavering commitment, passion and enthusiasm.

Matt Neitzke was diagnosed with Hodgkin's lymphoma in 2010, when he was only 10 years old. Despite being removed from home and school, suffering the physical and emotional challenges of treatment, and enduring long periods of isolation, he never let go of his dream of returning to baseball. Today, Matt is a junior pitcher for the Bombers baseball team at St. Xavier High School — and continues to play with the same number he has had on his jersey since age 4: the number 44.

AWARD

MARK & MELISSA MATSON

2017 FORTY FOUR AWARD WINNERS

It is The Dragonfly Foundation's great honor to publicly recognize the Matson's for their love, dedication and support of The Dragonfly Foundation. With their help, Dragonfly has been able to offer patients/families a safe place to land with The Landing. They also fully-funded the Beads of Courage program for Cincinnati Children's Hospital Medical Center's Cancer & Blood Diseases Institute. The Matson's also empowered the foundation to continually enhance and improve its infrastructure to support an ever increasing number of patients, siblings/offspring, parents, caregivers, and hospitals.

For these and many other reasons, Mark and Melissa embody the values that The Forty Four Award represents.
