

2017 OSRS

Road Races Saturday, May 20th – Sunday, May 21st, 2017

The 2017 Ohio Spring Race Series (OSRS) has unique weekend planned with a Omnium Race. This is a true omnium race in which you gain points for placing within each individual race you do not have to participate in all races for the spring series, but you must complete each race to be eligible for the omnium prizes. You can register for the entire weekend of racing, or each race individually. Take advantage of this rare opportunity to participate in a great weekend of racing for amateur cyclists. A portion of the proceeds benefits The DragonFly Foundation and Pelotonia.
